

English IV Summer Reading

English IV summer reading selections were chosen to deepen your understanding and analysis of other course readings and important themes in British literature.

You will read ONE of the following novels.

(Keep in mind that shorter does not necessarily mean the novel is easier.)

The Girl with All the Gifts by M.R. Carey OR The Dark Descent of Elizabeth Frankenstein by Kiersten White

Required – Annotate-As-You-Go

While you are reading, keep track of important information about

- Setting
- Point of View
- Characterization
- Conflict
- Theme

Highlight or underline excerpts and make notes in your text.

When you return to school in August, your class will discuss your novel choice then begin working on a project related to the novel you read. Using your annotated copy of the novel, you will complete your project which will be worth a test grade.

Both novels are good reads, so enjoy your choice and enjoy your summer!
